

Indiana Master Naturalist Course

Muscatatuck National Wildlife Refuge

Every Sunday in October and November
1-3 pm at Refuge Visitor Center

Program subjects will focus on Indiana natural history and topics will include field botany/woodland ecosystems, mammals, reptiles and amphibians, geology and fossils, ornithology/birding, raptors, invasive and native plants, the use of compass and GPS units, wilderness survival, wetlands, and public lands/natural areas.

Cost is $20 payable at first session.
ADVANCE REGISTRATION REQUIRED

For more information/registration contact Donna Stanley at 812-522-4352 or Muscatatuck@fws.gov

Course sponsored by Muscatatuck Wildlife Society

